CHAPTER I
INTRODUCTION

This Chapter presents the introduction of the research. It contains background of the research, statement of problem, research objectives, research significances, classification of key terms and organizing writing.

A. Background Research

Islamic Moral Value is essence of collection of life value that are reflected in actions governed by islamic religion. Based on islamic doctrine, moral value concerning wrong or incorrect life. Hornby (2011: 285) he revealed that moral valued contain goodness and mistakes in life in accordance with the standards that apply to us. An islamic moral a literaty work also reflects the author’s life view, which is about goodness. For example authors creat a songs to convey the message to the listener. The message is presented in the lyrics in the hope that someone who listens to the songs and understand what the author’s said.

Hurlocck (1997) also says that moral come from latin witch means “mores” which is also a habit of someone to live with good deeds. The emergence of moral themed in literature developed along with the development of the problem of the moral crisis faced by young people, which is around the end of the middle of the 20th century Macltyre (2002). Literary works at that time were a medium for propagating moral ideas written by the author. Through his literary work, the writers of the moralism school wanted to socialize moral ideas. They hope to be able to lead readers to enjoy moral messages that they write like good and bad values as the norm that applies in society.

Moral is matter of good or ba deeds in his life. Moral on the issue is an ethical norm or better know by rules that are considered hight by the considered hight by the community that most believe. Moral are clossenly related to commendable actions, while bad ones are called acts that are not good or immoral. Other observers also say that a moral action can be evaluated that has the potential to be good or bad. He also said that something moral could be declared good. Barcalow (1994)

Morality in Islam is a comprehensive term that serves to include the concept of righteousness, good character, and the body of moral qualities and virtues prescribed in Islamic religious contexts Barten Kees (2004). Love is an idea that underlies a morality in Islam: God’s is love for the creatures. According to Ouska and Whellan, morals are in the individual, but morals in the rules of existence. The idea is that human will acquire and follow the body of moral qualities in order to seek God's pleasure and to treat the fellow human beings in the best possible manner.

Value expressed as literature and literature is a value that cannot be separated. Literary work give a message from high values human life. Value is a quality that is good for anyone who is wanted, useful and attractive who has a positive value. Early (1991) states that values is part of an intrinsic trait or just a problem, it depends on who judges it controversially. Literature will provide a value for literary lovers.

In the explanation above, the researcher assumes that Islamic moral value exists in kind of literary work, especially in religious songs album. Talking about religious songs album.

The author usually include moral values in the work he made. With the intention that the ideas written into the literature can provide a good example. Writers usually also express a value so that it can be inserted with the idea of a good life. The value come from form a religious advice or an order that must be done in order to be clear in order to become a culture which can be a legacy that guides the good humanity. Through a literary work, the author can set moral values that are not true, be true to people who like literature. A good work always asks to invite reader to be uphold the norms and moral values Estern (1993).
Research in the United States Steven C. Martino Explains that listening to the lyrics of the song repeatedly and from time can cause Teenagers to act according to what they hear. Especially Nowadays music is at the level of popularity. Not the lyrics of the lyrics presented are negative or vulgar and do not deserve to be heard. Seems like in the music of Muslim musician give various messages in each of the lyrics. this aspect is also presented in an album "Heart" an English musician, Saif Adam.

Saif Adam is a talented musician at this time who is engaged in religious music. He was born in Essex city on the 5th December, Saif was brought up in a traditional Muslim family where teaching was the main profession. Original hailing from Iraq, they were keen to instill spiritual and Islamic value. Throughout his childhood, Saif demonstrated a keen interest in music and performance. He taught himself to play the guitar and cajon drums.

His years at college and university gave him the impetus and drive to perfect his musical skills. It was during this time he combined performance, composition and his love for the spiritual. He progressed to write his own lyrics resulting in fully crafted tracks.

After graduation, Saif pursued a career in the music industry. This resulted in a series of collaborations with mainstream artists including Ed Sheeran, N-Dubz and X Factor judge Tulisa Contostavlos. This fruitful period gave Saif a valuable opportunity to perfect his vocal abilities and song writing skills. But it was during a life changing trip to Makkah when he realised he could combine his musical talent with his faith. His music could become a new and exciting way in which to connect with his Muslim brothers and sisters (source: www.saifadam.com/biografi).

Upon his return, Saif began to deeply absorb the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad and it was at this point that his life changed forever.
He felt empowered and decided that he would try and share these positive messages with the community through the medium of music. Saif now writes and performs songs that have been written with the strength of Islam at the forefront of the message.

Saif has spent a great deal of time in the studio working on his debut album. 'Heart' is set to be released during 2013 and is a heartfelt ode to Islam. He has poured his heart and soul into this work and that raw emotion really comes through. The debut single ‘Believe’ will definitely strike a chord in all of us. The album is both uplifting and heartrending. He sings about how the ummah have strayed from the word of Islam, yet if we believe and have faith, then Allah will guide us all through the gates of Heaven (source: www.saifadam.com/biografi)

The music he delivered was very impressed with the message in Islamic Moral Value he wanted to listener (wikipedia). “Heart” song album there are many islamic moral value that are interesting to analyze. In the lyrics of the song there are so many islamic moral value that imply a message. Songs the title “Trues in Alloh”

From the song teaches us the life we do. Allah always what we fell, so trust to Allah. Such song have a islamic moral value message that signs that if we believe and sured to God’s help. He is a singer and songwriter from England. Saif grew up in a traditional Muslim family. His family has been interested in instilling spiritual and Islamic values while living in Iraq. Thro ughout his childhood, he showing interest in musik and performanc. He taught himslf to play guitar and drum. But as long as Saif returned to Mecca, he realized that music could be a new and interest to way connect with his Muslim bro thers (wikipedia).

Listening to the song seems to be a kind of fun activity. Basiclly, almost everyone loves music. It is a part of our language and life from before birth onwards. As babies, we hear lullabies. As young children we play, sing and dance to a myriad of nursery rhymes. As adolescents, we are consumed by the beat of popular music artists worldwide. As adults, every form of advertising we hear, every special event we experience, is in part, song and music. When the writer used to be a student in junior and senior high school, she felt that if she learned in an enjoyable situation, she could understand the lesson easily. Moreover, her teacher created a relaxed, stress free classroom atmosphere and encouraged extensive and intensive learning activity. Therefore, listening to the songs may be used as an alternative way to help the people.

Music in literary is certainly implies a moral message that is very useful for the listener. Music also seems to be in great demand by the community, therefore every lyric written must also identify a good moral message. Being a Muslim singer is a point of change in Saif Adam’s life forever. He felt lucky and decided to try to share positive messages and give moral value with the community through the music medium.

This chapter also consist of research methodology, the sources of data, sample of data, technich of colecting deta an d technic of analizing deta.

4. Chapter IV : Discussion
This Chapter presents the analyzing data wich is collected in previous chapter. This chapter will present above result of analysis with this teoritical approuch.

5. Chapter V : Conclusions
This chapter presented the conclusions of the research, this chapter also present critics and suggestion for the researcher and also for the next researcher will do the same research.

I. Places and Time of The Research.

In this sections , the researcher mentions the place where the researcher did the research and the time where the researcher did the research.

1. Places of The Research

The researcher has been done doing the researcher at State Islamic University of Sunan Gunung Djati Bandung,library Centre of UIN, Library of Faculties, and Library DISPUSIPDA West Java. From the researcher was doing the research the proposal until this undergraduated thesis done. The researcher has completed the research being guided by lecture and mentors.

2. Time of The Research

The researcher worked on thesis during five months in 2019. In february, the researcher gathered the data with he researcher got from Lyric, and Al Quran as the Object. After the gathered the data, the researcher analyze the data. This step was run during March after the Sproval Shit Publish, Futhermore in April, may and june the researcher worked the data with analyze. The step was done after june. This step was making the conclusion of the entire research. Step by step in making the research is presented on the table:

On February 14 of 2019 conducted a Proposal Seminar, followed by a revision and signed by two examiners. On February 25 after the guidance decree was completed and then handed over to two thesis supervisors, after conducting guidance then collecting the data in chapter 1 chapter 2 and chapter 3. In March each of them did the work in chapter 2 and chapter 3 checking data validity, then in April to May Processing the Data Chapter 4 and Chapter 2 are reviewed and working on chapter 5 and References.
