

ABSTRAK

In this story tells of a girl named Victoria Jones, beautiful girl and liar, and former employee of Greenholtz master as shorthand typist, from the story in the 50s, there is meaning and meaning in this novel story, that is meaning of story of this novel Is the existence of love, sweat, tears and sacrifice. And the meaning of this story is never to give up on something if you want the world to be a better place and love to overcome everything.

The suggestion in translating the novel is to never miss a single missing page to examine a book, carefully study the book and use our knowledge as much as possible, not only that but also to provide a clear explanation and explanation in translating and examining the book. A translator should listen very well to every language in the world, A translator must interpret every word very well of every language in the world, A translator must understand every language in the world

